

Community Talk is brought to you by

4802 Bryn Mawr Ct.

TORIN M. FINSER

October 7, 2017 @ 6pm

Presenting

How Parents and Teachers Work Together
Toward a Future Worthy of our Children

Torin M. Finser, PhD, is chair of the Education Department at Antioch University New England. He received his Ph.D. in educational leadership from Union Graduate School, his M.A. in education from Adelphi University, and his B.A. from Bowdoin College. He was a class teacher and special subject teacher at the Great Barrington Rudolf Steiner School, where he also served as faculty chairman and trustee. Dr. Finser has now served on the board of six Waldorf schools, has done extensive consulting in organizational dynamics and leadership development, and has been a keynote speaker at conferences in Europe, Asia and throughout North America. He is the author of numerous books, including: School as a Journey, A Second Classroom, and School Renewal to name a few.